

SCHOOLS OF TOWN
GRADUATE 187

(Continued from Page Seven)

Springfield, Longfellow, Evelyn M. Hill music, O. Italia, Beloved, Donizetti; presentation of diplomas, Dr. P. J. Cassidy, member of school committee; music, The Star Spangled Banner.

The class of 1915 numbered: Herbert B. Anderson, Ronald Bamford, George H. Beckwith, Leon W. Billings, William O. Bogdanaki, Raymond L. Branch, Gerald F. Brussell, George K. Brush, Jr., Peter P. Bush, John C. Bushnell, Joseph S. Clarke, Jr., Joseph P. Connor, Raymond T. Counihan, Francesco Covello, Thomas J. Croker, Homer W. Davis, Carl I. Edlison, Elroy D. Erickson, John W. Ferguson, Halsey A. Gallup, Henry D. Green, Philip S. Hall, Everett H. Hiscox, Jr., Ray D. Holdridge, Lester Y. Hull, Frederick P. Jackson, Elmer M. Jovett, Leroy Lacy, Alfred L. Morrill, Carl R. Nelson, Franklin Panoveo, Frank E. Parry, James L. Pedace, Harry A. Pierce, Henry R. Raphael, H. Norman Rasmussen, Donald S. Robinson, Edward J. Robinson, Douglas B. Sevin, Raymond G. Spencer, Charles F. Turbell, Frank M. Williams, Samuel C. Wilson, Harry I. Wolk, William M. Wyman.

Ernel P. Adams, Roseana E. Allyn, Elizabeth W. Ellis, E. Bishop, Marian A. Blyden, Bessie A. Boardman, Viola M. Boardman, Mildred E. Burgess, Catherine L. Curry, Greta V. Danielson, Catherine P. Dodd, Mildred M. Enos, Viola M. Grover, Elsie M. Heber, Evelyn M. Hill, Corinne T. Holbrook, Mabelle E. Hopkins, Hermina Howard, Margaret Hughes, Elsie A. Jacobson, Mary E. Lamb, Gertrude M. Lang, Catherine A. Lee, Ruth L. Loring, Doris I. Main, Charles L. Melvin, Winnie McBurney, Martha C. Pollock, Hazel M. Purvis, Annie Rabinovitch, Gladys Y. Rathbone, Ida L. Reynolds, Marion Robertson, Ruth L. Selzer, Elizabeth Sevin, Ella C. Sussman, Grace C. Tatt, Miriam A. Vaughn, Honora H. Williams, Irene I. Wilson, Helen L. Woods, Mildred L. Zabricka.

*Post graduate.
The principal at the school is Fred L. Newton; assistants, Mrs. Harriet S. Blackmar, Miss Ellen G. McCloud, Miss Annie M. Petrie. Music supervisor, Miss Mary E. Rogers. Drawing supervisor, Miss Mary G. Henderson.

At West Town Street school.
The principal at the school is Fred L. Newton; assistants, Mrs. Harriet S. Blackmar, Miss Ellen G. McCloud, Miss Annie M. Petrie. Music supervisor, Miss Mary E. Rogers. Drawing supervisor, Miss Mary G. Henderson.

At the West Town street school the leading scholar was Rowena Eleanor Fellows, and the graduates were Lawrence William Crocker, Rowena Eleanor Fellows, Sherman Smith Gay, Julian Hallock Jones, John Joseph McNally, Henrietta Mary Maria, Nora Cecilia Murray, Francis Anthony Powers, Evelyn Isadora Stott, Helen Cornelia Vergason, Inez Woodworth, Irene Woodworth. The class colors were red and white.

The room was most attractively decorated with oak leaves and streamers of the class colors, also laurel, peonies and ferns. There were exhibits of drawing, penmanship, arithmetic and current events.
The programme as rendered follows: Greeting Song, grade 8; The Gladness of Nature, grades 7 and 8; recitation, The One Hoss Shay, Sherman Gay; song, The Endless Song, school; recitation, A Brave Girl, Rowena Fellows; song, Spring Song, school; recitation, Douglas and Marmion, John McNally; reading, Two Little Confederates, Nora Murray; song, June, school; recitation, The Battle of Hohenlinden, Francis Powers; reading, Rebecca at School, Inez Woodworth; recitation, Night in Seville, school; recitation, Lochinvar, Lawrence Crocker; reading, Rebecca's Picture, Helen Cornelia Vergason; song, Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary, school; reading, The Angels of Buena Vista, Evelyn Stott; recitation, Boundaries of the United States, Julian Jones; song, Elz King, school; reading, Darius Green and His Flying Machine, Henrietta Morris; reading, The High Court of Inquiry, Irene Woodworth; presentation of diplomas, Rev. E. P. Phreaner; song, Star Spangled Banner, school.

Mrs. Elizabeth Danahy assisted as pianist, Miss Isabel T. Service is principal of the school.

At Town Street School.
At the Town street school the exercises were held in the senior room, where peonies and ferns were most effectively arranged with carnations and roses with an exhibition of drawing and penmanship. The eleven graduates were Arline R. Combley, Margaret A. Ewing, Jessie Hitchcock, Agnes M. Laskowski, Lucile G. Miner, Howard E. Morris, John H. Pouch, Edward L. Sterry, Harold L. Sterry, William C. Webster, Vincent B. Wood, Vincent B. Wood ranked highest in the class, with John Pouch second and William Webster third.
The programme was as follows: A Night in Seville, upper grades; piano solo, Lohengrin, Arline R. Combley; recitation, Inch-Cape Rock, Lucile G. Miner; violin, Minuet, John H. Pouch; T. Butler; recitation, Heroes, H. Pouch; song, June, upper grades; piano solo, Drifting Leaves, Alice Saxton; recitation, Connecticut, Jessie Hitchcock; piano solo, Lohengrin, Arline R. Combley; song, The Humble Bee, upper grades; violin solo, Simple Aveu, Theodore Sterry; recitation, The Old Time Friends, Arline R. Combley; presentation of diplomas.

The exercises closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner.
Miss Bessie M. Butler, Miss Katherine Butler were the accompanists. William G. Tarbox is principal of the school.

At Occum School.
The graduating exercises of Occum school were held in the assembly hall of that building at 2:30 o'clock under the direction of Principal Anna L. Welch, with Miss Cora F. Branch presiding at the piano.
The class motto was Work and Study Conquers All, and the graduating class consisted of: Mary E. Allen, Theresia Johanna Coffey, Pauline Evelyn Desherly, Paul Emile Maurice, Mary Christina McHale and Lottie Agnes Mearl.

The exercises were well attended by parents and friends who were invited to visit the different rooms, where they found an exhibition to the best of drawings. Frederick C. Topf, who presented the diplomas, gave a very pleasing address.
The following programme was well rendered: Prayer, Rev. Charles Smith; music, Song of Welcome, Veazie, school chorus; recitation, Kentucky Belle, C. P. Woolson, Mary C. McHale; recitation, June, James Russell Lowell, school; music, Hunting Song, Kinross, school chorus; recitation, Song of the Sword, Anonymous, John A. Allen; recitation, Tom, T. Harley, Theresia J. Coffey; music, Spring Song, Lessem, school chorus.
Recitation, The Lightkeeper's Daughter, M. A. Goodwin, Lottie A. Mearl; music, If the Rose Could But Speak, Love, Edmondson, school chorus; recitation, A. Allen, piano accompaniment, Pauline E. Desherly; recitation, Books, William Freeland, school; music, Swing Song, Lehr, school chorus; recitation, Baseball, Mark Twain, Paul E. Maurice; music, Minuet in G, Beethoven, violin solo, James Lambert; presentation of diplomas, Charles T. Topf.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

All
Trolleys Lead
To

The Boston Store

The Boston Store

The Business
Center
of Norwich

BIG LIVE WIRE SALE

It is hard to conduct a sale which is able to surpass the records which have been established during the LIVE WIRE SALES of preceding years. Each year we have presented it, this value giving event has shown an increase, for each time it has offered more extraordinary values, and with the present sale the standard of value giving has been raised way above anything Norwich has ever seen. Now is the time for you people of Eastern Connecticut to buy—now while the Live Wire prices prevail.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE SPECIAL TIME SALES ALL MAIL AND TELEPHONE ORDERS WILL BE PROMPTLY FILLED.

EVERY DEPARTMENT REPRESENTED—HUNDREDS OF LIVE WIRE BARGAINS

For Today Only—Four New Events of Great Importance

FOUR LITTLE SALES WITHIN THE GREATER ONE—FOUR SPECIAL SALES WHERE THE VALUES ARE SO GREAT WE ARE COMPELLED TO LIMIT THE TIME FOR SELLING, AND IN SOME CASES THE QUANTITY WE ARE ABLE TO SELL TO EACH CUSTOMER. IF YOU WANT TO PARTICIPATE IN THESE BARGAINS BE HERE WHEN THE CLOCK STRIKES.

NO TELEPHONE ORDERS TAKEN FOR THESE SPECIAL ITEMS.

THIS MORNING
10 to 11 o'clock
CLEVER 25c NECKWEAR
FOR ONLY
15c

THIS MORNING
11 to 12 o'clock
DAINTY CORSET COVERS
FOR ONLY
17c

THIS AFTERNOON
3 to 4.30 o'clock
LADIES' LONG SILK GLOVES.
FOR ONLY
41c

THIS AFTERNOON
4.30 to 6 o'clock
GENUINE TRIPLE PLATED
TEA SPOONS
5c each
50c a dozen

Here's what they are all looking for—the daintiest Organdie Neckwear for women that you have ever seen anywhere for twenty-five cents. Embroidered Organdie Vesteese, Collars and Collar and Cuff Sets in all the newest shapes. It's well made, of good quality, and just as pretty as it can be.

Thirty-five cents is the price that would be paid at any other time for these dainty covers. In the first place the styles are right, second the quality is good, and third the regular price of 35c is a low figure to sell them for—but for one hour this morning you may have your choice for 17c.

Did you ever hear of 75c Silk Gloves being sold for this price—Gloves made of pure silk with double tipped fingers? The Boston Store is the place to get them and you can get them for this price only at the time advertised. All 12 button length, and we have them in both black and white.

Another big bargain which will be yours if you take advantage of it during this period of an hour and a half. A handsome design in the French grey finish—and they are genuine triple silver plate. Buy a dozen of these handsome Spoons now for half a dollar.

THIS MORNING
FROM 10 TO 11
15c

THIS MORNING
FROM 11 TO 12
17c

THIS AFTERNOON
FROM 3 TO 4.30
41c

THIS AFTERNOON
FROM 4.30 TO 6
5c each
50c a doz.

The Reid and Hughes Co

The Reid and Hughes Co

music, Blow Soft, Winds, Vincent, school chorus.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.

At Mt. Pleasant Street.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance of parents and friends of the graduates who were greatly interested in the well arranged programme rendered. Rev. George H. Strouse, pastor of the First Baptist church, offered prayer.

The programme was as follows: Music, In Spain, Vincenzo di Chiara, school chorus; declamation, Education the Pathfinder, John Sears; reading, Two Pairs of Shoes, Joseph Lincoln, Miss Blanche M. Armstrong; recitation, The Little Quaker Sinner, L. Montgomery, Miss Mary A. Hussey; music, Three Chaffers, Truitt, school; recitation, Euclid as it is played for Charity, Virginia Leeds, Miss Sarah Katz; declamation, If I Kipling, Samuel Wax; recitation, What Shall We Do With Our Boys? Anon, Miss Etta Rosenberg; music, Silent Night, the Doves, J. Offenbach, Rub-a-Dub, C. Vincent, school chorus; declamation, The Parting of the Ways, Henry Cabot Lodge, Marvin B. Leffingwell; recitation, The Legend of the Vain King, Henry Van Dyke, Miss Gladys B. Newbury; declamation, America's Coming Greatness, Ingersoll, Thomas F. Mulcahy; music, Tyrolean Chorus, G. Rossini, school; recitation, Flying Jim's Last Leap, E. D. Parks, Helen E. W. Higgins; declamation, The Nation's Flag, Henry Ward Beecher, Howard Ives.

Supt. E. J. Graham spoke to the graduating class, emphasizing the thought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them. The diplomas were then presented by Mr. Graham.

Supervising Principal J. B. Stanton spoke earnestly to the graduates both as to work during the past years and of the broader life to which they were going. Mr. Stanton spoke of the two honors which had been won by members of the class when in the recent Colonial Games contest the second prize was won by Etta Rosenberg and an honorary mention by Sarah Katz.

Receiving diplomas in the Palmer writing for the year were Helen Baker, Augusta Shoresvsky, Elizabeth Lacy, Frieda Rotkowsky, Jennie Sack, Sarah Katz, Etta Rosenberg, Gladys Newbury, Sophie Wildowski and Stephen Voetich.

Certificates for improvement in the Palmer writing were won by Helen Baker, West Higgins, Mary Hussey and Mildred Francis.

The programme closed with singing the Star Spangled Banner by the school.

Graduation exercises were held in the eighth grade room at Mt. Pleasant street school at 2:30 o'clock.